

Part 1 – Agency Profile

Entity Overview

The Idaho Educational Services for the Deaf and the Blind (IESDB) is a governmental entity which was established to provide quality education to children from birth to 21 years of age who are hearing impaired or visually impaired to the extent that they cannot receive proper education in the public school system. The Entity offers educational and social opportunities for a specialized student population by providing a residential academic program complemented by a residential cottage life program in Gooding. This campus based program is known as the Idaho School for the Deaf and the Blind. In addition, the Entity offers its programs and enhanced services statewide through regional programs for the visually-impaired and hearing-impaired students via its six outreach offices located throughout Idaho. The outreach offices are located in Coeur d'Alene, Lewiston, Idaho Falls, Pocatello, Gooding, and Meridian. The Entity is funded with General Fund appropriations, miscellaneous State funds, endowment earnings and federal grants.

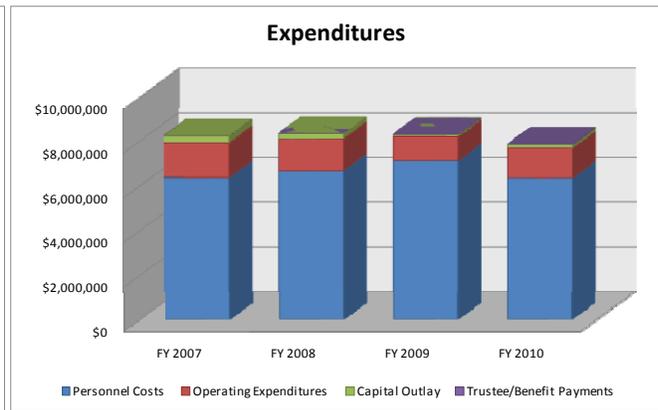

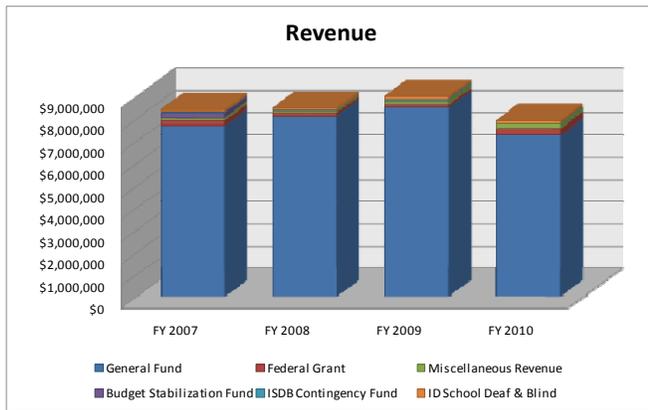

Core Functions/Idaho Code

The State Constitution, Article X, Section 1, provides for the establishment and support of State institutions for the deaf and the blind. Idaho Code, Title 33, Chapter 34, established the Idaho School for the Deaf and the Blind in Gooding, Idaho. Additionally, this chapter lists the general duties of the governing Board of Directors and defines eligibility for students to attend the campus program located in Gooding. Idaho Code, Title 33, Chapter 1, created the State Board of Education and gave the Board general supervision, governance, and control over the Idaho School for the Deaf and the Blind.

The Entity is organized into four major program areas: Education Services, Financial Services, Student Services, and Outreach Services. The Entity's Administrative Leadership Team (ALT) is comprised of the following individuals: Brian G. Darcy, Administrator; Jeff Woods, CPA, Director of Financial Services and Human Resources; Gretchen Spooner, Director of Education; Charles Hunter, Director of Student Services; Paula Mason, Director of Outreach Services; Randy Bow, Director of IT; and Ken Allison, Director of Maintenance.
