

Part I – Agency Profile

Agency Overview

The Idaho WWAMI Medical Education Program provides Idaho medical students with the opportunity to complete three of four years of medical school in Idaho, thereby developing their familiarity with the healthcare needs of the State and region, and increasing the likelihood that they will remain in Idaho communities to practice medicine. Thirty Idaho students completed their first year of medical school through the University Of Washington School of Medicine's (UWSOM) regional program at the University of Idaho's (UI) Moscow campus, sharing resources and faculty with the joint program at Washington State University in Pullman, Washington. After completing their second year of training in Seattle, students have the opportunity to complete their 3rd and 4th year clinical training requirements in Idaho. These clinical rotations are coordinated through the Idaho WWAMI Medical Education Program office in Boise.

The first year WWAMI Program at UI is directed by Dr. Jeff Seegmiller, Ed.D. who reports to the Provost and Executive Vice President at UI, and also functions as an Assistant Dean of the UWSOM. The WWAMI Medical Education Program office in Boise is directed by Dr. Mary Barinaga, MD, who reports to the Vice Dean for Regional Affairs at UWSOM, and also serves as an Assistant Dean in Idaho. The WWAMI Program at UI employs sixteen part-time faculty (shared with other academic programs) and five administrative staff. Idaho students admitted to the WWAMI Medical Program are interviewed and selected by the Idaho Admissions Committee, a group of four Idaho physicians appointed by the Idaho State Board of Education, who work in cooperation with the University of Washington School of Medicine Admissions Committee.

The Idaho WWAMI Medical Education Program is committed to helping prepare physicians for medical practice in Idaho, regardless of eventual specialty selection, as well as increasing the number of physicians who choose to practice in rural or underserved areas. There is also a strong commitment to the partnership between excellence in research and teaching in medical education. On average, WWAMI faculty in Idaho brings in $5 Million each year in biomedical research awards. Cutting-edge research prepares the next generation of doctors to be well-informed and at the forefront of clinical medical practice. The WWAMI faculty at the University of Idaho and our clinical/research faculty in Boise, Pocatello, Jerome, Caldwell, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho Falls, McCall, Sandpoint, Hailey, and other rural training communities are committed to being dynamic teachers and informed biomedical scholars.

In addition, WWAMI program goals include the continued development of humanitarian and service interests of our medical students, and recruitment from groups within Idaho that are traditionally underrepresented in medical school populations. WWAMI has established outreach programs to high schools and community colleges to encourage and prepare talented Idaho students from rural, underprivileged, or minority backgrounds who have an interest in medicine and health careers.

Core Functions/Idaho Code

The core function of the Idaho WWAMI Medical Education Program at the University of Idaho is to provide qualified Idaho residents with access to and education in medical training as part of the Idaho State Board of Education's contract with the University of Washington School of Medicine. Idaho Code §33-3720 authorizes the State Board of Education to enter into contractual agreements to provide access for Idaho residents to qualified professional studies programs, and specifically, the WWAMI Medical Education Program (33-3717B(7)).

Performance Highlights:

1. In 2014-2015, 30 UWSOM students from Idaho completed their first year of medical school in Idaho. In addition, 12 third-year and 17 fourth-year UWSOM students (from Idaho and other WWAMI states) completed the majority of their clinical rotations within Idaho on the “Idaho Track”. Overall, a total of 91 different UWSOM third and fourth year medical students completed one or more clinical rotations in Idaho during this academic year. Those 91 medical students took a total of 283 individual clinical rotations in Idaho (190 required courses and 93 elective courses).
2. In February of 2015, the Idaho State Legislature appropriated funding to continue the support for 5 more first-year medical seats in the Idaho WWAMI Targeted Rural and Underserved Track program (TRUST). The mission of TRUST is to provide a continuous connection between underserved communities, medical education, and health professionals in our region. This creates a full-circle pipeline that guides qualified students through a special curriculum connecting them with underserved communities in Idaho. In addition, this creates linkages to the UWSOM’s network of affiliated residency programs. The goal of this effort is to increase the medical workforce in underserved regions. In addition, the State of Idaho appropriated funding for 5 additional traditional WWAMI students. This expands the Idaho class size to 35 medical students starting in fall 2015.
3. Admission interviews for Idaho applicants took place in Boise, January 12-15, 2015 and in Seattle, March 2-5, 2015. Applicants choose their interview site; all interviews were conducted by Idaho physicians who make up the Idaho Admissions Committee during both weeks. For the entering class of 2015, Idaho received 141 total applications. Of these applicants, a total of 70 were interviewed, 49 in Boise and 21 in Seattle. Idaho WWAMI admission interviews in Boise are a permanent part of the WWAMI admission process for Idaho students and beginning in 2016 both interview weeks will take place in Idaho.

4. Idaho WWAMI continues to nurture student interest in rural and underserved medicine through offering rural training experiences like the “Rural Underserved Opportunities Program” (RUOP) during the summer between their first and second years of medical school. During summer 2015, we placed 23 first-year medical students in this one-month rural primary care training experience throughout Idaho. Through the success of this program, the Idaho WWAMI RUOP program was the recipient of the 2012 Outstanding Program Award from the American Academy of Family Physicians, and was honored at the AAFP Foundation awards banquet in Philadelphia, PA.
5. This year, 3 Idaho medical students were elected as members of the UWSOM chapter of Alpha Omega Alpha, the national honor society for medicine. By national guidelines, these students must be in the top twenty-five percent of the class to be eligible for election, and must show evidence of personal and professional development as a physician-in-training, integrity, compassion, fairness in dealing with one's colleagues, and capacity for leadership. Our Idaho honorees were Kate Arbon of Caldwell, Codi Fitzgerald of Boise and Sigrid Fostvedt of Ketchum.
6. In addition, our WWAMI program goals include the continued development of the humanitarian and service interests of the medical students, and an enhanced ability to recruit from groups within Idaho that are traditionally underrepresented in medical school populations. WWAMI delivers outreach programs to high schools and community colleges to help encourage and prepare talented Idaho students from rural, underprivileged, or minority backgrounds who have an interest in medicine and health careers. Idaho WWAMI will host the eighth Idaho Pre-Med Summit in the spring of 2016 at one of the university campuses in Idaho. University college advisors and pre-health students from across Idaho attend this advising forum.
7. WWAMI-affiliated faculty at the UI continues to be highly successful in bringing research funding into Idaho from agencies such as the National Institute of Health (NIH) and the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS). Additionally, WWAMI has had a long standing relationship with the Idaho INBRE Program, which recently received a $16.3 million renewal grant from NIH. The 5-year grant allows INBRE to continue building its statewide network to enhance biomedical research at all nine of Idaho's universities and colleges and the Boise VA, through shared faculty funding and student research training support.
