Part I - Agency Profile

Agency Overview

Our mission is to preserve and promote Idaho history, which is authorized through 74 state statutory mandates and the National Historic Preservation Act.

21 states, including Idaho, deploy the structural model where the State Historical Society, an executive branch Agency, administers the Core Programs of State Archives and State Records Center, State Museum, State Historic Preservation Office, and State Historic Sites. This consolidated structure advances expertise sharing, leveraging of fiscal and human resources, cross marketing, and comprehensive fundraising, resulting in a highly efficient organization.

The Idaho State Historical Society (ISHS) creates value by stewarding irreplaceable state-owned collections, providing information and understanding about Idaho history, stipulating local voice to federal decision making with regard to Idaho's cultural and archaeological resources, supporting Idaho's educational and curriculum needs through informal and applied learning opportunities, serving as the official repository for the state's permanent government records, and providing records management services to over 30 state agencies.

³ Agency has maintained the same goal since FY 2020 on this metric due to uncertainty of COVID-19 with school children.

⁴ Beginning in FY2023, Agency will begin tracking a new metric for National History Day (NHD). Instead of looking at the performance measure of students advancing from regional competition to state and from state to nationals, we will be gauging the statewide reach of the program by representation of students by Idaho county. The FY22 baseline for NHD representation was 23 counties.
