

Part I – Agency Profile

Agency Overview

Established in 1969, the Board of Tax Appeals (BTA) provides taxpayers a popular means of bringing appealed assessments before a fully independent and judicial-like tribunal. Each year, hundreds of appeals are brought to the Board from either property tax assessment decisions made by a county board of equalization or various tax-related decisions made by the Idaho State Tax Commission. BTA cases are heard and decided in an attentive and fully neutral manner.

The BTA provides parties with an accessible and fair hearing to present their evidence and argument. Hearings are held in convenient locations across the state. The 3-member citizen board, well-supplied with technical knowledge and experience in taxation, ensures due process safeguards are followed in all its proceedings. Although the Board's administrative proceedings are technically formal, they stand in contrast to most court proceedings, which take considerably longer to complete, can necessitate legal representation, and add extra expenses.

Core Functions/Idaho Code

Idaho Code Title 63 Chapter 38 describes and sets out the Board's duties. The fully independent Board hears tax related appeals de novo at an appellate level. Parties may present new evidence to a specialized and neutral tax tribunal. IDAPA 36.01.01 expands on the procedures and process followed in affording parties a fair hearing.

FY 2023 Performance Highlights

The Legislature has set a statutory deadline of May 1st for the issuing of decisions in ad valorem assessment appeals. This provides the parties with a final decision prior to the next year's assessment being issued. Where most appeals to the Board involve property tax assessments, meeting the May 1st deadline is the Board's primary performance measurement. This measurement was met for FY2023.
